

Ciudad Obregón Sonora, México
May 10th, 2019

Mr. Ernesto Renato Ottone Ramírez
General Subdirector of Culture UNESCO

Receive a warm greeting from all our team at Oficina de Convenciones y Visitantes de Ciudad Obregón, A.C. (Conventions and Visitors Office of Ciudad Obregón). The main goal of this office is to promote our city by highlighting all the attributes that distinguish us as the main tourist destination at the South of Sonora.

Our city is well known for having the best steaks, the freshest seafood and unique gastronomy of dishes as caguamanta (a fish soup), regional hot dogs (our version of this dish), typical sonoran food as the "birria de cabrito" (a goat dish) and wakabaki (a typical stew of the yaqui tribe) among other regional dishes that have delighted our national and international visitors.

We fully sustain the initiative of postulate our city, Ciudad Obregón, as a creative city in the field of gastronomy. We are convinced that the cultural weight is shown in our dishes, which are unique, strong, diverse and outstanding.

For that reason, we ask you in the most thoughtful way, your support to our city on this postulation. Which for us, would be a privilege and also could become a tool to raise our identity and pride.

We thank you in advance for your attention to this request. Please, feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Looking forward to hearing from you,

Best regards.
